The South Orange County School of the Arts (SOCSA) annual SHOWCASE event to be held at The Orange County Performing Arts Center's Renèe and Henry Segerstrom Concert Hall

South Orange County School of the Arts Foundation Board President Suzanne Tyler announced this date that SOCSA's annual SHOWCASE event will be held at the Orange County Performing Arts Center's Renee and Henry Segerstrom Concert Hall on June 11, 2007.

"This is a tremendous step forward for SOCSA" Board President Suzanne Tyler said, "and a great opportunity for our students to experience performing in a world class venue. We look forward to sharing our talented students and our organization with all of Orange County."

About SOCSA

The Mission of the South Orange County School of the Arts (SOCSA) is first and foremost to develop a love of the Arts in our students that will stay with them throughout their lives no matter what career they may choose. SOCSA provides an in-depth educational opportunity to students who have chosen the fine arts as their career path. SOCSA provides a dynamic and creative environment that integrates academic disciplines and artistic vocational learning. Programs include Dance, Drama, Instrumental Music, Vocal Music, and Visual Arts.

Two full-scale Broadway musicals and two full-length non-musical plays are presented annually, along with art shows, concerts, and student showcase performances.
