SOCSA PICNIC 2017

The SOCSA Picnic was a blast! Over 100 students and families joined us for fun in the sun to kick off a great year! THE ADULTS ARE LOOKING FORWARD TO A TUG-OF-WAR REMATCH. Don't miss out on opportunities to meet fellow SOCSA families and friends throughout the year.

PARENT MIXER

The parent mixer was a huge success! Thank you to all the parents that attended. We had a beautiful night and encourage all SOCSA parents to please join us at our next event! A huge shout out and thank you to Kathryn Takach, Lisa Fry, Lisa and Rick Wright, Kathy Ayrouth and Lynn Lindborg for their help.

SNACK CART

All SOCSA Parents.....we need you! We are looking for parents to help with one of our top fundraisers....the snack cart. The afternoon snack cart is a great way to get to know the students and provide them with the opportunity to purchase a snack before they start their afternoon activities. If you are interested in working please contact Shauna Atchity at 714-376-5367 .

STUDENT SPOTLIGHT

DANIELLE RATHBUN

This issue features a young artist whose work was selected in an art contest presented by the Dana Point Arts & Culture Commission. The Dana Point Arts & Culture Commission acts on behalf of the City to actively encourage programs for the cultural enrichment of the community.

Danielle Rathbun
ART CONTEST WINNER

Danielle Rathbun just completed her freshman year at Dana Hills High school. She created this image in her Multimedia Design class. She is a talented artist and enjoys photography, illustration, and ceramics. Danielle's artwork has been featured in several local shows, including the Dana Point ArtFest and the Festival of Whales. She likes sailing, dogs, and the ocean, and she wants to be a future animator.
